testimony, and the witness said that he had not made the statement in that way.

"Did you make it?" Mr. Rankner persisted.

"I do not know. I simply said that as far as I was concerned I had nothing to do with it. I meant that I had nothing to do with handling the money."

The next link in between the witness's testimony before the grand jury and his testimony before the committee was pressed hard upon the witness, who appeared to be unable to explain it.

In reply to their questions, the witness said that he had first mentioned what he knew on the subject a few days ago to Mr. Birney, con-consideration for his testimony. Referring to his conversations with Myers the witness was asked whether he did not know that Myers was bitterly opposed to Clark's candidacy. He admitted that Myers came from a Dal-

Finally, just completed at the Armstrong Works, Buxteh, England, Capt. Craig will go to England without delay. The Albany will leave Newark some time next month for the United States. She will have an American crew. It was intended to put an American commander J. C. Howell to command her when she goes off, but this has been changed, and he will remain in London as naval attache of the United States Embassy there until April 1.

For the most persons, there is a natural revulsion, and the long-looked-for and valuable food is laid aside.

Advise persons who have had this experience to put Grape-Nuts on their menu again and eat never more than four teaspoonsful at a time. Then one gets the powerful rebuilding strength of the food and looks forward with zest to each coming meal. It has been a great blessing to our family." Mrs. W. P. Baker, Los Angeles, California.
